I understand that FredCamp is a retreat experience. I am expected to arrive on time Sunday, participate in all activities throughout the week, and leave after participating with my work crew in the Saturday morning celebration. Any situation that would cause a camper to leave must be approved by the director in writing and the camper must check in and out with the director. I also agree to abide by FredCamp rules of conduct and covenant as well as the directions of the FredCamp leadership team.

(FOR ALL CAMPERS, Adult or Youth Camper, please initial here) _____

Publicity Release: I understand that during the week of FredCamp pictures and video will be taken of campers and volunteers and may be used for evening programs, the FredCamp web page, radio, TV, or for presentations about FredCamp to community organizations.

Please initial your choice:

____ I give permission to for my picture or that of my child-participant's picture and/or interview to be used.
____ I do not give permission to for my picture or that of my child-participant's picture and/or interview to be used.

2017 Covenant

I understand...

- that participating in FredCamp is a privilege
- that I am serving others and our Lord in all that I do during FredCamp and that all my actions are expressions of God's love
- that FredCamp is a 24 hour a day retreat experience
- that Communion will be served by an ordained minister
- that the only acceptable times to use cell phones, ipods and other electronic devices are during free time and at my worksite when approved by staff.

I will not...

- leave my work site unless accompanied by my work crew and adult camper or staff member
- smoke, use illegal substances or alcohol
- participate in any horseplay such as throwing paint, shaving cream, water, food, etc.
- bring any firearms, weapons, or fireworks to camp
- take any kind of food or drink into designated no food areas
- leave camp without permission from the director and my parents

I will...

- respect the rights and needs of others at all times
- act in a respectful manner, at all times, toward residents, staff, adults, and other campers
- actively participate in all FredCamp activities from arriving on time on Sunday to staying through Saturday morning's Closing Celebration
- observe "lights out" and rest in preparation for the next day
- not disturb others after lights out and allow others to get their needed rest
- stay within the designated areas of the school campus
- report any injury immediately to an adult or FredCamp staff member
- wear attire appropriate to a Christian workcamp while at the base and on the worksite
- use safety precautions, including wearing closed toe shoes on the worksite and using safety goggles or masks when using equipment
- accept personal responsibility of payment for any damage I cause
- wear a seat belt at all times when riding in a vehicle

I sign this covenant knowing that should I decide to break any of these agreements, my parent(s) will be called and I will immediately be dismissed from FredCamp.
